Are there any factors that may affect training which Instructors should know about?

Why did you decide to train in the Summer Holiday Program?

To Train With Any Of Our Martial Arts Classes and to keep the experience positive, we reserve the right to refuse training to persons who do the following

- 1 - Rumour Mongering, unfair comments, swearing, threatening or offensive behaviour about or to the club, Its Instructors, Associates, Members or Helpers
- 2 - Continual failure to honour financial commitments and responsibilities of training with our martial arts systems
- 3 - Interference or "Cutting In" on a class in progress (Including Loud Talking or Speaking Loud On Phone) No Yelling Out or Entering The Training Area If Your Not Training
- 4 - Inability to control any child not training, no toys, balls, crying, loud yelling or general class distractions from what instructors are teaching.
 Rules 3 & 4 is so we can keep our focus on you, persons breaking these rules WILL be asked to leave from the spectator area
- 5 - Using their skills to BULLY, or use in any manner other than in self defence, third party defence, or in class & competition
- 6 - Handing out any information about our club and its training methods to other martial arts instructors.
 Grading schedules, certificates, grading sheets and associated material are under copyright.
- 7 - Over excessive contact, over aggressive behaviour, deliberately hurting or not respecting and following the clubs tapping (submitting) rule or deliberately endangering students or Instructors Safety
- 8 - Should a member commence training with another Taekwondo School while still training with us, or showing club disloyalty.
- 9 - No Recording our training sessions without permission including photos, filming, or sound recording. We have children given to us by department of child protection that under NO CIRCUMSTANCES can be recorded due to their own personal safety for fear of their location being found (Please Respect This Rule)
 Some Our instructors do not like to be recorded so can people please respect our privacy.
- 10 - FOOD is not allowed in our training halls, Most of these venues are exercise rooms that have a NO FOOD RULE
